EMPLOYER

- If you are self-employed, or employed as a partner in a professional firm, so state, and state trade or business names you use and the name of the professional firm you work with.
- If you have more than one job during the present calendar year, state all your employers.
- If you are not employed outside the home, so state.
- If you have no employment, so state.

OCCUPATION

State your occupation.

- If retired or unemployed, state your occupation when you were working.

- If you are a student or not employed outside the home, so state.
- If you have more than one occupation, state all of them.
- If you have a profession or skill which you have used in the past, but are not now using in your job, you may state that additionally.

SOURCE OF INCOME

State the type and source of any other income in excess of one thousand dollars during the twelve months preceding the date of filing. You do not need to include an employer identified in the preceding section. Each source of income must be listed, regardless of its tax status. Sources must be listed specifically; that is, stocks would be insufficient; you must state stock in XYZ Company. The type of income can be stated generally; capital gain, dividend, rent, other household, retirement accounts, etc. You are not required to disclose the amount of income from any source, but you may if you wish. If you are self-employed state the source of any other income in excess of one thousand dollars that you received during the twelve months preceding the date of filing. Note: Do not disclose the names of clients or others to whom you have a legal duty of confidentiality without their permission. A legal duty of confidentiality is one in which you could invoke the right to refuse to answer a question under oath in a trial, like a lawyer-client privilege.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

State the name, location, and nature of activity of any business entities or enterprises, with holdings of real or personal property or with business dealings in the area encompassed by the Boulder Valley Comprehensive Plan (BVCP), in which you or your household member have any financial interest, or in which you or your household member are actively engaged as an officer, director, or partner. You need not disclose a financial interest in any business entity in which you or your household member’s only interest is through an investment in an excepted investment. A charitable donation is not a financial interest.

Excepted investment means a mutual fund, common trust fund of a bank, pension, or deferred compensation plan, any other investment fund, or a ten percent or less interest in the stock of a company, which for funds or stocks is widely held; publicly traded (or
