Big Picture Questions Related to our Planning Framework

What does updating the Master Plan look like?

What about our system is more static and what is more dynamic?

How do we plan so that we can be more responsive to dynamic situations?

What type of information or level of detail should go into each type of plan?

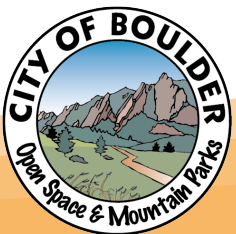

Can building out in more detail the Master Plan take the place of some of our plans? Maybe or systemwide plans?

How do we sunset and update plans?

Should we have more plans? Less plans? than we have now.

Can the community understand all our plans and processes?

Who reads them all?
