

Youth Opportunities Advisory Board

2021-2022

Application Information

Application Deadline: Ongoing

Are you a City of Boulder high school age student interested in:

- Learning more about the Boulder community?
- Making an impact on youth in Boulder?
- Meeting and getting to know students from other high schools?
- Having your voice heard in city government?
- Developing leadership skills?

If you want to learn more about YOAB from a current YOAB member before or after applying, please contact Wanda!

You are invited to apply to the Youth Opportunities Advisory Board (YOAB)!

YOAB is a group of 16 high school students who commit to helping their community by participating in a community leadership and grant-making program for City of Boulder youth coordinated by the City of Boulder Human Services Department. YOAB members:

- Give advice to the city government and to local agencies about youth issues;
- Review grant applications from nonprofits and schools and make decisions to fund youth programs;
- Address youth needs through community projects and initiatives; and
- Can earn community service hours and get a free EcoPass.

Requirements of YOAB:

- City of Boulder resident, high school age, pre-GED. Students who attend a City of Boulder high school but do not live in the city limits may also apply, with preference given to City of Boulder residents.
- Willing to work and open to learning, desire to make a positive difference for youth in Boulder.
- Previous leadership experience is not required.
- Able to handle time commitment:
 - Retreat: TBD
 - Monthly meeting every 1st Friday, 9:00am-3:30pm, September through June (excused absence)
 - Weekly meetings on Monday evenings

Application process to be a part of YOAB:

- Submit the application, including an adult recommendation, to Wanda Pelegrina Caldas via email pelegrinaw@bouldercolorado.gov.
- Applications will be reviewed by YOAB members and Youth Opportunities Program staff.
- Applicants will be invited to a virtual interview upon application receipt.
- New members will be selected based on their potential to positively contribute to the board's work and their capacity to represent the diversity of Boulder's youth community.

For any questions about YOAB, to request a classroom/group presentation, or to set up a meeting with a current YOAB member to learn about YOAB, please contact:
